

ASD Awareness for Fathers

A 5 week course designed for Fathers of children with ASD to provide greater understanding about the support & approaches needed to support the individual with autism and the family. Mark Brown has over 30 years experience working with people with special needs.

The training will take place at Linden Bridge School, Worcester Park.

11th, 18th, 25th June & 2nd and 16th July - 6.30 – 8.30pm

Session 1 What is Autism?

Theory of Mind
Literal understanding

Session 2 Impact of Autism on the Individual

Obsessions
Behaviour

Session 3 Impact of Autism on others

Parents
Siblings
Society

Session 4 Support that can be given

Keeping others safe
Puberty

Session 5 Individual Issues

Other topics to cover from the previous sessions

£65 per delegate

Please contact Vicky Jones on 07747 595 155 or courses@sendteachingschool.co.uk for more information or for a booking form. Please note spaces are limited. Refreshments will be available to attendees.